

Western Balkans SecuriMeter 2022

INFOGRAPHICS

Pocket Edition

rcc.int/securimeter/

WESTERN BALKANS SECURIMETER

Public Opinion Survey on Security

◆ #SecuriMeter

annual security survey of public opinion in six Western Balkan economies, commissioned by the Regional Cooperation Council (RCC) and financed by Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs

◆ #SecuriMeter

explores the most important contemporary regional security issues facing Western Balkans and public perceptions towards them

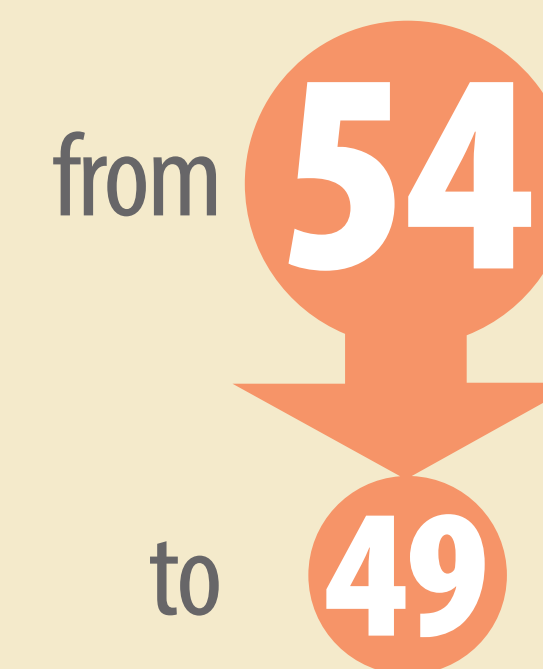

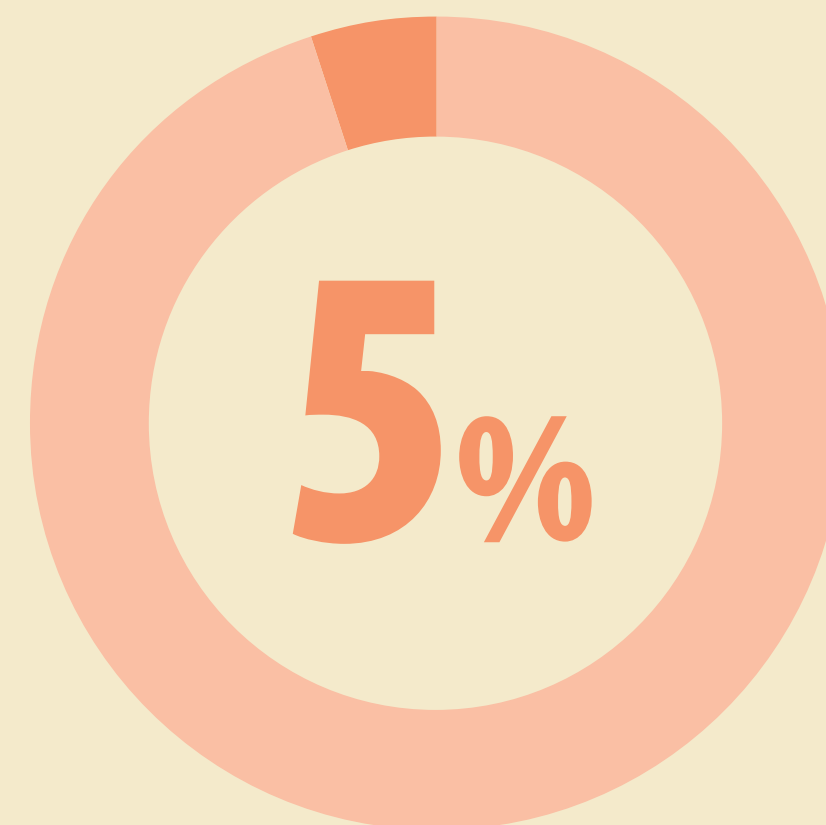

◆ #SecuriMeter pocket edition

features thoughts of citizens and businesses through infographics

◆ #SecuriMeter 2022

conducted by Indago among 6,041 citizens in the period from 25 March to 11 April 2022 throughout the Western Balkans

Balkan Public Sentiment Index records a slight decrease by

0 to 100 scale

while the future expectations had a decrease of Western Balkan citizens are unhappy with the overall security situation in the region of Western Balkan citizens expect the security situation to improve

over the next year

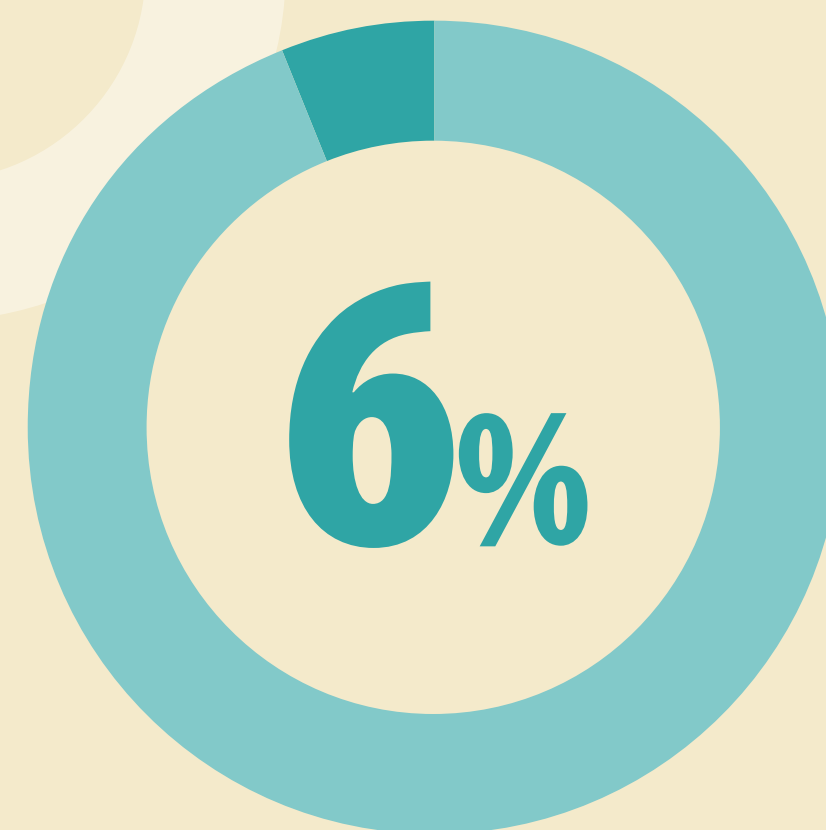

20%

The number of Western Balkan citizens considering owning a gun doubled in the past year from

in Western Balkans SecuriMeter 2021

66%

of people from the Western Balkans believe incoming migrants increase security risks for the region

of Western Balkan citizens agree regional cooperation and joint preparedness system for natural disasters, including pandemic, is beneficial

of people from the Western Balkans agree disinformation represents security threat to their economy

journalists are seen as the top spreader
of disinformation by

of Western Balkan citizens

64%

of Western Balkan citizens are afraid of a strong probability of online radicalisation of children or young people of people from the Western Balkans claim to have given bribe in the healthcare sector

more than in 2020

of Western Balkan citizens perceive judiciary as the most corrupt sector, a 7-point increase compared to a year ago

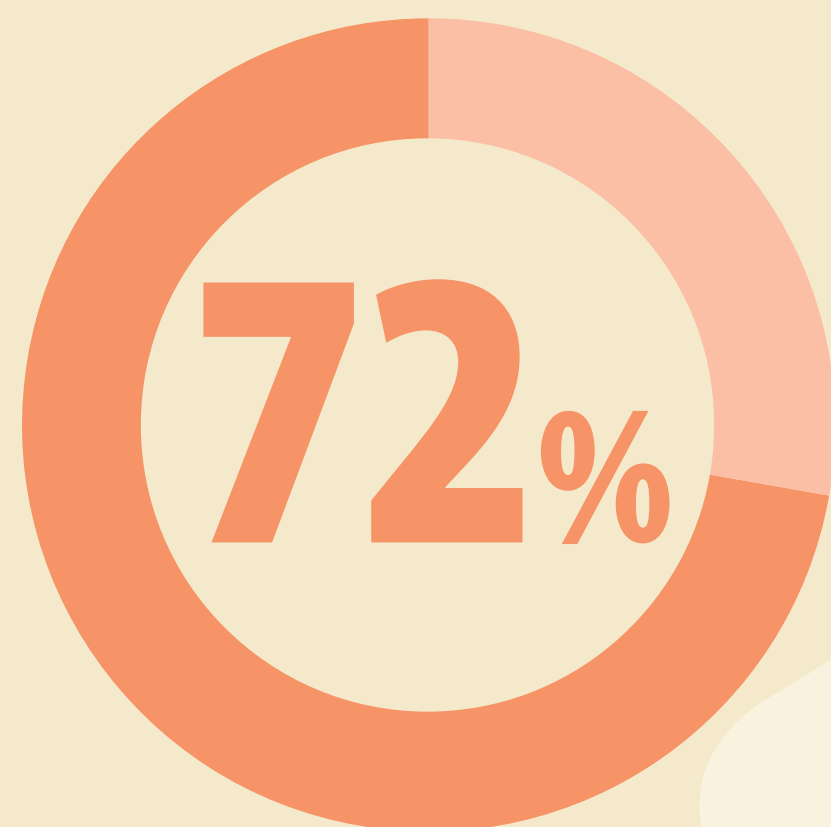

83%

57%

of Western Balkan citizens wouldn't report corruption as they believe it would not lead to an investigation of Western Balkan citizens consider domestic violence a serious security threat with claiming to have witnessed this type of violence of Western Balkan citizens believe they can identify fake news

decrease since 2021

Regional Cooperation Council

rcc.int/securimeter/

good.better.regional.

Trg BiH 1/V, Sarajevo
Bosnia and Herzegovina

Fax: +387 33 561 701
Phone: +387 33 561 700

mail: rcc@rcc.int
website: www.rcc.int

@rccint

regionalcooperationcouncil_rcc

RegionalCooperationCouncil

RCCSec

Regional Cooperation Council

rcc.int