

At the end of the Slovak presidency we should have:

- a methodological handbook for revision of NAPs. This handbook will be a practical guidance to instruct countries of the Decade how to revise their NAPs' indicators, making progress monitoring possible,
- modification of indicators of Slovak NAP, according to the developed methodology,
- revision of process of monitoring.

Time schedule

- September 2009 – December 2009: development of methodology and drafting of the handbook,
- December 2009: international round-table,
- January 2010 – July 2010: revision of Slovak NAP, based on the developed methodology,
- February 2010 – April 2010: establishment of WG and 3 working group's meetings